Speaking:

1. In the song "Faded" by Alan Walker, the phrase "You were the shadow to my light" is used. Discuss with a partner what you think this means. Can you think of a time in your life when someone was very important to you, like a light in your life?
2. The lyrics repeatedly ask, "Where are you now?" Imagine this question is about someone you miss. Share with your partner who this person is and why you miss them. How would you feel if you had the chance to see them again?
3. The song mentions "Atlantis, under the sea" and talks about being "faded" and "lost." What do you think these references symbolize? Have you ever felt lost or disconnected from the world around you? Share your experience and how you found your way back.
